	Form 990 Line 93a	Minnesota Public Radio (MPR) is a noncommercial, educational public broadcasting organization. In fulfilling its exempt purposes, MPR provides certain related ancillary services for which it receives remuneration, as follows: License to use subsidiary communications authority. MPR leases a portion of the FM subcarrier on several of its radio stations (a special closed circuit channel available in an FM signal) to a nonprofit agency, Minnesota State Services for the Blind (MSSB). MSSB uses this subcarrier to broadcast a 24-hour noncommercial program service called the Radio Talking Book to visually handicapped individuals who are provided with special decoder receivers. This service provides readings of current periodicals and literature. This is a related activity. Network Carriage Fees. MPR, through its American Public Media activity, distributes a significant schedule of the noncommercial radio programs which it produces or acquires to 776 nonprofit public radio stations throughout the United States for rebroadcast to their communities. These stations help MPR support the costs of producing these programs by paying carriage fees. This is a related activity. Ticket sales to "A Prairie Home Companion." MPR produces a live, weekly two-hour radio program, which it distributes to over 550 public radio stations across the country. This program features the best in contemporary live music, comedy, poetry, and drama on a non-commercial basis. A live audience pays an admission fee to attend the broadcasts. This is a related activity. Satellite Uplink. MPR uses its portable and its fixed satellite uplink equipment to assist other nonprofit public broadcasters in distributing noncommercial radio programs which they produce to other public radio stations. This is a related activity. Sales of Recordings. MPR has produced recordings of performances of music which it sells. MPR has produced music from its radio series Pipedreams, Saint Paul Sunday and The Morning Show. All of these radio series are produced, distributed and broadcast by the organization. This is a related activity.

ARTICLE 3

Trustees

SECTION 3.1 Number and method of selection.

3.1.1 There shall be two (2) classes of trustees: Term Trustees and Life Trustees, who collectively shall be referred to as "Trustees". The only difference in these two (2) classes shall be in the length of term. The Trustees shall consist of the persons who are members of the Board of Trustees of American Public Media Group and of other persons who are elected from time to time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees, subject to the provisions of Section 3.1.4.

3.1.2 The Board of Trustees of this corporation shall consist of no fewer than three (3) persons with and no more than thirty five (35) Term Trustees and up to seven (7) Life Trustees. Trustees elected by American Public Media Group for one-year terms as a result of their status as retired staff officers shall not count against the limit of thirty-five (35) Term Trustees. Subject to such limitations and the provisions of this Article 3, the number of members of the Board of Trustees shall be such as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Trustees.

3.1.3 The persons who are elected by the Board of Trustees shall be reasonably representative of the geographical, ethnic and cultural diversity of the Minnesota Public Radio service area.

3.1.4 The election of each Trustee who is elected by the Board of Trustees must be approved by the Board of Trustees of American Public Media Group, and in the event that the election of any such Trustee is not approved, the election process shall begin again with respect to the resulting vacancy.

3.2.5 Term Trustees elected by the Board of Trustees of this corporation shall be assigned to year groups in such manner that the term of office of one-third of such Term Trustees will expire each year. The first term of office of each Term Trustee shall be for no more than three (3) years.

3.2.6 No person shall be eligible for reelection by the Board of Trustees of this corporation as a Term Trustee for more than four (4) consecutive complete terms of three (3) years, provided, however, that an elective officer of this corporation may continue to serve as a Trustee so long as he or she remains an officer.

3.2.7 Life Trustees may be elected for an unlimited number of terms.

3.2.8 Except for Life Trustees and for a person who remains an officer, no Trustee who has been elected by the Board of Trustees of this corporation as a Term Trustee to four (4) consecutive complete terms of three (3) years may be elected again as a Trustee of this corporation except after an interval of one (1) year from the expiration of his or her previous term.

After initial formation by the Board of Trustees, the terms of one-third of the members of each Regional Development Council shall terminate each year, to be replaced by election by such Council, upon nominations from the current supporting members of the Council's station or stations. The Chair of each Regional Development Council shall be elected annually by the members of the Council.
