An alternate title that illustrates how far the legislature has strayed from the constitutional single subject requirement:

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. No. 3656

A bill for an act

relating to practically anything and everything; prohibiting use of the arts and cultural heritage fund for projects that promote domestic terrorism; requiring the Amateur Sports Commission to submit a bid to host the Nordic World Cup Ski Championship event; regulating low-dose x-ray security scanners; allowing sugar beet transporters to leak liquids on the road; exempting hair braiders from cosmetology registration requirements; creating a new offense for driving slower than the flow of traffic in the left lane; making technical changes to higher education loan forgiveness and research grant programs; modifying accessibility requirements for public buildings; establishing requirements to declare the nonexistence of a father-child relationship; specifying conditions of legislative ratification of proposed collective bargaining agreements; creating a Motor Vehicle Title and Registration Advisory Committee; modifying the solar energy incentive program; restricting the reunification of parents and children after sexual abuse; reducing the annual contribution to the renewable energy development account; establishing an Oversight Commission for the Legislative Budget Office; establishing highways signs for the Minnesota State Academy for the Deaf and Minnesota State Academy for the Blind; requiring predatory offender registration for certain invasion of privacy crimes; requiring higher education institutions to disclose their student complaint process; establishing a utility stakeholder group to direct energy efficiency tracking system; increasing penalties for child pornography offenses; naming select highway stretches and bridges to honor local heroes; increasing medical assistance reimbursement rates for doula services; establishing energy storage system pilot projects; expanding criminal sexual conduct offenses for persons in recent positions of authority over juveniles and for peace officers who engage in sexual activity with those in custody; extending the sunset date for the court technology fund; allowing utilities to include pension cost in rate base; modifying gizzard shad cast net requirements; investigating potential registration and voting violations; modifying requirements for cities to establish organized collection; allowing home-schooled or non-public school students to enroll Post-Secondary Enrollment Options program if they take a career and technical course; allowing semi-trucks to take up multiple lanes when navigating roundabouts; modifying buffer strip regulations; creating external review of MPCA water quality standards; expanding of DWI law to include prior offenses in other states; conducting cost-benefit study of energy storage systems; providing a grant for a student loan debt counseling program; requiring utilities to include energy storage in integrated resource plans; altering requirements and prohibitions for flashing, glaring and white lights on vehicles; increasing penalty for certain invasion of privacy crimes; transferring Spinal Cord Injury and Traumatic Brain Injury grant funding source to special revenue fund; creating a transition period for the Legislative Budget Office to take responsibility for coordinating fiscal notes; requiring reports on court-imposed stays of sentence or adjudication for sex offenses; creating Prairie Island Net Zero Project; administering a claims award process for businesses negatively affected by the sale and closure of a biomass plant; creating summative academic rating system for districts and schools; prohibiting denials for expedited service requests for drivers licenses or title transactions due to limitations of the IT system; prohibiting using MNLARS funding for additional DPS employees; requiring training of staff, quality controls, provider education at the Office of Health Facility Complaints; prohibiting building bikeways that would eliminate or relocate disability parking; changing fee for selling native grasses and wildflower seed in commercial quantities; requiring user testing for state agencies implementing software impacting local government; establishing a biomass business compensation account; encouraging nonexclusionary disciplinary policies and practices before dismissal of a student; requiring school districts to shut off drinking water sources that contain excessive amounts of lead contamination; removing exemption for touching clothing covering the buttocks in fifth degree criminal sexual conduct statute; creating a Task Force on missing and murdered indigenous women; allowing schools to display “In God We Trust”; exempting certain business addresses from display on Secretary of State website; prohibiting students eligible for free and reduced price lunches being denied lunch for outstanding debt; allowing bicyclists to cross an intersection from a dedicated right-hand turn lane without turning right; requiring people charged with specific crimes to provide biological specimens; mandating course in government and citizenship; appropriating funds to reimburse legal costs of the counties in the Otto v. Wright County case; imposing conditions negotiations for an extension of the Northstar Corridor; enabling Deputy Registrars to edit transaction information; changing definition of renewable chemical to include biomass material; prohibiting the disarming of local law enforcement officers; requiring private insurance coverage of 3D mammograms; modifying regulations for temporary water well boring; prohibiting drivers license suspensions solely for not appearing in court for a petty misdemeanor or a failure to pay a fine; appropriating money for school-linked mental health grants delivered by telemedicine; modifying child care provisions related to families experiencing homelessness; appropriating money for agriculture, rural development, housing, state government, public safety, transportation, environment, natural resources, energy, jobs, economic development, higher education, prekindergarten through grade 12 education, health, and human services; making technical changes, requiring rulemaking, requiring reports; amending MN Statutes 2016…